

WARDMAN LEVY ARRESTED

He Was to Have Been Tried, Presumably on the Same Charge, by the Police Board on Thursday—Campbell Pleads Not Guilty

Patrolman Jeremiah S. Levy of the High Bridge station, the former ward man of the High Bridge street police station, who was accused of blackmail by Mrs. Augusta Thaw in her testimony before the Lexow committee and is billed for trial at Police Headquarters on Thursday was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with bribery. The warrant was issued by Judge Cowing. The document was an ordinary magistrate's warrant, and did not contain the name of the complainant.

The supposition is, however, that it was formed at the instigation of Assistant District Attorney Wellman. It was sent to Superintendent Byrnes, who at once gave it to Inspector Conlin. In whose district Levy was stationed, and ordered him to serve it. Inspector Conlin arrested Levy at the station house and brought him to Police Headquarters, where he was looked up for the night. This morning he will be arraigned before Judge Cowing in the General Sessions building.

Levy is about 28 years old, married, and lives at 310 West 116th street. He was appointed to the force on Dec. 3, 1890. He was a patrolman in the Eleventh precinct when on Dec. 6, 1893, Capt. Cartwright succeeded Capt. Devary in command of the precinct. Two days later, at the request of Capt. Cartwright, Levy was appointed ward man.

In her testimony Mrs. Thawer swore that she formerly kept a disorderly house at 87 Allen street, and that on the night of Jan. 10, 1894, on her solicitation, she gave Ward a room at her house, the understanding being that for that consideration she would be permitted to keep her house.

Open without fear of molestation by the police, it was believed, is the substance of the evidence on which the warrant for Levy was obtained. On the same day, the independent Byrnes on Monday forwarded to the Police Commissioners charges against Levy.

On April 24 last Theodore Pohl of 33 Bowery and John Schraeder of 28 Bowery, who were arrested on April 19, were arraigned in the Essex Market Police Court, before Justice Hogan, for examination on the charges of disorderly houses. The complainants against them were Charles Gaertner and Adam Libischer of 334 Stanton street and Charles Schneider of 34 Stanton street, stool pigeons in the employ of Levy.

On Levy cross-examination, the evidence of endants, the complainants began to cry and finally admitted that they had perjured themselves at the instigation of Levy. By the direction of Justice Hogan charges were made against them, and they were held in a $2,000 bail for trial. Levy admitted sending the men to the test, but denied that he had told them what to testify. Subsequently Levy was reduced to patrol duty and transferred to High Bridge. Samuel J. Campbell, former Capt. Gunner's ward man, appeared before Judge pleaded in the General Sessions to plead to an indictment found against him for bribery. The Lawyer House represented Campbell and said that Campbell pleaded not guilty and asked leave to withdraw the plea in a week, in order to enter a demurrer. Mr. House intimated that if he entered the demurrer would be that there was not sufficient evidence to convict. He said he would probably move to leave to inspect the minutes of the Grand Jury.

...witnesses at the coming police trial. As in the past, three were most of the witnesses who were present at the sessions of the committee.

charges are pending before the Police Commissioners, on Thursday, July 19. Mr. Grant got forty blank subpoenas.

Pastor Hatchett's Matrimonial Ventures.
HAMILTON, Ont., July 17.—The Rev. Mr. Hatchett, the colored preacher, who is charged with being a bigamist, declares that there is no foundation for the charge. He says he was brought a marriage ceremony with Elizabeth Brown at Elmira, N. Y., in 1860. After living with her for three years he discovered that she had a husband living whom she had married at Williamsport, Pa. She also confessed to having two or three husbands. Hatchett then left her and came to Hamilton. He says the young woman he married here knew all about his marriage in Elmira.

WILMINGTON, Del., July 17.—Mrs. Philip Tucker was shot this afternoon by Jacob Sock. Mrs. Tucker and her husband had a quarrel with Sock, and started to get a warrant for his arrest. Sock followed them. At the corner of Chestnut and Shipley streets the women had a struggle. Sock had a pistol in his hand, which he used to shoot Mrs. Tucker.

was discharged, and Mrs. Tucker was shot in the abdomen. Sock was arrested.

Gossip of the Ring.

Will Sherman and Scott, formerly of the Madison A., send their address to Wm. Kelly, care of the sporting department of the Madison A. club.

Al Allen, who recently fought Harry Bailey of Australia a draw at Madison, wishes to try conclusions with any 145-pound lad in America.

The Irwin City Athletic Club of St. Paul offers to donate 60 percent of the gross receipts for a twenty-round contest between Dixon and "Young" Griffo. Jack McCalliffe says that if Horace Leeds really sent business he would not let the question of a few pounds in weight be a factor in making a match. Pat Farrell, manager of Jack Dewey, the Brooklyn fighter, says he is sure that he has been matched with Tommy Creel in private next Monday night, 125 pounds, for $200 a side. Small gloves will be used.

Jack Dunn of Australia said yesterday that if Joe Walcott was in earnest regarding his proposition to fight him, he would like to meet him at 150 pounds. Dunn is considered the best man of his weight in Australia.

Harry Miner told a SCS reporter yesterday that in the future he would prohibit boxing at his theatre in this city. This information will be received with interest by the promoters of any of the mixed and boxing glass fighters hereabouts.

Jack O'Brien, the New England welter weight, whose bodyguard of victorias were checked by Joe Wal-

He recently announces his intention of reintroducing boxing to Philadelphia. He is the only one in America who has been a professional boxer, having fought 145 times between 1904 and 1914. The Quakers sports have set up a wall of deep disgust against the methods employed by the promoters of boxing bouts in Boston. The Quakers contend that none of their townsmen receive a chance of displaying their prowess in the City of Culture.

and rise to the impression that the Westerner is afraid of him.

Bobbs, brother of St. Paul, whom Western sports believe is a "light" weight, wants to make a match with any 135 or 155 pound man. Bobbs is tired, and can punch hard and fight cleverly. Carson Abbott refused to meet him a short time ago due to his color.

Kid Lavigne of Saginaw writes from his home in Michigan that he has a friend in this city that he would like to see. He is a fellow named Eddie Pierce at 126 pounds before the Webster Athletic Club of Boston. Lavigne says that should and a friend were driving from Dixon to a town about 10 miles away. They were on the road just as the fellows emerged from a bush and grabbed hold of Dixon's horse, and began to torment the animal. Dixon told them in a loud voice to "leave off," but instead of stopping, the fellows continued to torment him. Dixon then began to yell at him by calling him vile names. Unable to control his patience and good nature much longer, the heavy feather weight jumped out of the vehicle and ordered the fellows to "leave off." After hearing the name of the "boy" whom they had waylaid,

According to a Boston paper, "Champion George" had an opportunity one night last week to display his science upon a few guileless individuals.

*Car Fare,
Time, and Annoyance*

Saved
by Sending Your Advertising for
THE SUN

 THE SUN
Through the American District Messenger
Office
Nearest Your Location.

Charges the Same as at Main Office.

Journal of Management Inquiry 22(1)